Bernie is the best candidate for the working class, the labor movement, and our fight for a government that works for all.

There’s only one candidate with the track record and the vision to get this country working for working people.

Bernie Sanders is a straight shooter who has devoted his life to fighting for the working class. Bernie Sanders’ 2016 campaign for president revealed a deep popular hunger to fix our broken political system and rigged economy. He changed the public debate by putting the needs of working people front and center — and now he’s our best bet to beat Trump in 2020.

The best way to elect Bernie, take on the billionaire class and make the political revolution a reality is by organizing workers on a mass scale. Like Bernie says, “Not Me — Us.”

Labor for Bernie is a grassroots network of union members and labor activists. We need your help to take this campaign into our workplaces, picket lines, and union halls, to win support for Bernie and his platform, and to build a powerful movement of and for the working class. Get involved — and help us make history.

Support Labor for Bernie and our fight to win:

- Medicare For All
- Rights for all workers to unionize and strike
- A living wage for all
- Progressive taxes on the rich and corporations
- A Green New Deal and a “just transition” for workers and communities
- Equality for all, full legalization for immigrants, criminal justice reform, and a woman’s right to choose
- An end to anti-worker trade agreements
- Real democracy by getting money out of politics
